THE FIFTIETH ANNUAL MEETING of the Contributors to the Northern Home for Friendless Children was duly held upon Tuesday, May 12th, 1903, the Rev. L. Y. Graham, D. D., President of the Trustees, in the chair. The Annual Reports of Dr. Graham and Mrs. A. V. Sloan were read, as were also the reports of Townsend Willits, Esq., Treasurer of the Board of Trustees, and Mrs. Alexander M. Fox, Jr., Treasurer of the Board of Managers. Whereupon, on motion, the Reports were received and referred to the Committee on Publication.

On motion, the Contributors proceeded to the election of Trustees and Managers to serve for four years, and to fill unoccupied terms. The complete lists are hereto subjoined.

The Fiftieth Annual Report
OF THE
BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Of the Northern Home for Friendless Children.

To His Excellency, Hon. Samuel W. Pennypacker, Governor of Pennsylvania; to the Honorable the Senate, and House of Representatives, and to the Contributors of the Northern Home for Friendless Children:

IN presenting our Annual Report, we are reminded that two of our honored and valued members, Mr. William King and Mr. Richard Winship, have ceased from their earthly labors during the past year. A suitable minute has been placed upon our records in testimony of their fidelity.

This is our Jubilee. Fifty years ago this Institution was founded. Since that time eight thousand children have been housed, clothed, fed, trained and educated, and cared for within its walls. It seeks to be in the truest and highest sense of the word a Home for Friendless Children. Physical, intellectual and spiritual culture is its mission, and we believe it is fulfilling this end for the young committed to its care. The Home admits children from all parts of the State. There are now 45 pupils from outside of Philadelphia. The problem for providing for these 226 children taxes the mind and heart of the friends of this charity. A large proportion of the funds comes from private sources, but we are again under the necessity of appealing to the Legislature to aid us. This institution has received annually the generous consideration of the Senate and House of Representatives, and we ask that this most deserving charity be remembered by your Honorable body in the coming year, in order that this beneficent work may be continued. We court the closest scrutiny into its management.

We believe that an investigation of its affairs will show that it is conducted economically, judiciously, and in accord with the purposes of its founders.

We record in closing with devout gratitude to God for the marvellous protection and favor that have been vouchsafed to the Institution in the exemption of its inmates from disease and death. Truly, "Goodness and mercy have followed us."

We wish also to extend our thanks to all who in any way shared with us in the support of this noble and deserving charity.

Asking your continued coöperation, and invoking the richest benediction of our Heavenly Father upon the Institution committed to our trust, we submit our annual report.

In behalf of the Board of Trustees.

L. Y. GRAHAM,
President.

Fiftieth Annual Report
OF THE
BOARD OF MANAGERS.

To His Excellency, Hon. Samuel W. Pennypacker, Governor of Pennsylvania; to the Honorable, the Senate, and the House of Representatives, and to the Contributors of the Northern Home for Friendless Children:

ANOTHER year has passed, and again we come before the friends and contributors of the Northern Home for Friendless Children, to present our Annual Report. Fifty years have begun and ended, bringing with them their joys and sorrows, their bright days and their cloudy ones, since its organization, and we come to-day to celebrate our "Golden Anniversary." If those who labored so wisely and so faithfully to establish and perpetuate this Home for the Friendless could but meet with us, they would rejoice at the success which has crowned their efforts, at the record which we bring before you to-day, that so many little ones have been plucked like brands from the burning. They have gone to their reward, and we, like Elisha of old, have accepted their mantle, and earnestly pray that He who is the "Father of the Fatherless" will give us wisdom, that we may honor and glorify Him in our work.

A meeting was called Thursday, April 28th, 1853, which was responded to by a number of Christian women, who, determined to do all in their power to alleviate the ills and misfortunes of our common humanity, and believing that they could most wisely and effectually discharge their duty in this respect, by taking the young from the haunts of vice, penury and idleness, and placing them under a shelter of Christian care and training, associated themselves together as a society, to be called the "Home for the Friendless," and to be located in the Northwestern district. To raise funds for this purpose became their first object, and in order to do so, a Floral Fair was held on the 29th of May following, which in a pecuniary sense was so gratifying that the managers lost no time in applying it to the relief of those for whom it was designed. Accordingly, a building on Buttonwood street, below Broad, was rented; on the 16th of July the home was given in charge of a matron, and on the 3d of August, the first child was received.

From the opening of the Home until the first day of May, 1854, the whole number of children received was forty-seven. Since that time until the present year, May 1st, 1903, the work has gone steadily onward, and the whole number of children received during these fifty years has been 8,013. On the 17th of June, 1854, the corner stone of our present building was laid, with appropriate religious ceremonies, and the following 1st of May, according to the terms of the original contract, the Managers took possession of the premises, and to quote from the Report of that year: "The occasion was a very joyful one, indeed, and long to be remembered by all who had the pleasure of participating in it."

On the 16th day of March, 1865, another most important event in the history of the Northern Home is recorded. It was the dedication of the separate and commodious dwelling for the exclusive use of the orphans of our United States soldiers and sailors who fell during the Civil War. It was the first Home, we believe, in the country, that was reared for the orphans of those who died in the Nation's service. This branch of our work was continued until the year 1891, when the last orphan in our charge was transferred to another institution, and our responsibility ended. It was also to the Civil War that we are indebted for our faithful and untiring superintendent, Miss Walk, whose family, owing to the destruction of the beautiful town of Chambersburg during the invasion by the Confederates, having lost their all, sought a home and refuge in our city. And not here did the far reaching work of the Northern Home cease. When the city of Johnstown met with a disaster by flood, and so many children were left without parents or homes, two of our managers went to that suffering city, and brought back seven children of one family. The Northern Home became their foster mother, and they remained in our care until they were of age.

And again, when the Spanish War threatened our land, a request was sent to the Government, asking that the orphans of any soldiers or sailors who fell in our country's service might be placed in our care. The war, however, being of such short duration, our offer was not needed, but a family of Cuban refugees, consisting of five children, was brought to us. Two of these are still with us.

Many of our children, now men and women, have gone out from this Institution, and are filling responsible positions with ability and acceptance. Two of our pupils graduated a few weeks ago in the Williamson school. One of these carried off the highest honors; the other was one of our Johnstown boys, who has a fine record, and graduated as draughtsman. It has just been announced that this year's Haverford fellowship, which has a value of $500, has been awarded to one of our pupils. He will study at Harvard. Time would fail me to tell of all the successful ones; suffice it to say, that others are teachers, bookkeepers, clerks, filling responsible positions with ability. In the girl's department, one has recently graduated in dressmaking, another in typewriting. And so the good work goes on; each year we are sending them out into the world, and though there may be some exceptions, we feel proud of the reports that are brought to us.

It is fitting to pay a tribute to all those who so earnestly labored in years past for the welfare of the Home, but especially we would mention our first President, Mrs. E. E. Hutter, our faithful Treasurer, Miss Louise Claghorn, and our untiring Secretary, Mrs. W. J. Chaplain. "They rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

During the past year, the work of the Home has by no means diminished, the number of children under our care throughout the year being greater than for some time, and applications are constantly refused. This we have been compelled to do, as our income will not warrant taking any more inmates into our household.

Those who are placed out in families were visited by the managers, or some competent person, and if the home was not found satisfactory the children have been brought back to the Institution. These cases, however, were exceptions.

Our Kindergarten is unusually large, numbering thirty children. The number of pupils in the Primary department also is greater than it should be, but under the instruction of our most excellent teachers they are doing remarkably well. Of the remainder, some attend the High School, the Grammar School, and the public school near us, and the reports received from them are very creditable. Music is also a very great source of entertainment and pleasure in our Home. The Matthew Baird Cornet Band, under the instruction of Mr. Henry Paul, has just been equipped with new instruments, and we hope for unusual success from them in the future. Several of our children are receiving instruction on the piano, and one very little boy is trying to master the mandolin.

Every Sabbath is observed as a day of rest ; religious services are held in the chapel in the morning, and Sunday School in the afternoon, conducted by most competent and conscientious teachers.

During the summer a number of excursions on the river, and trips to the Park and the Zoo, helped to make the heated term pass pleasantly. The Christmas festival was a great source of pleasure. The contributions of large cakes from the different hotels, of 200 toys from the Christian Endeavor Society, of Bethlehem Presbyterian Church, and donations from a number of our merchants, who never forget us, were deeply appreciated. A Stereopticon entertainment during Christmas week also added to their enjoyment.

Surely an All-wise Providence has watched over our little ones in the past year; we had very little sickness, and though twice dark clouds hung over us for a little while, they proved to have silver linings, and were quickly dispelled.

We have in the Home at the present time 226 children. These come from sixteen different counties throughout the State of Pennsylvania, from the Friendless Poor of the City of Philadelphia, and the rest are brought to us without homes, and in many cases without friends.

It is with deep regret that we record the deaths of two earnest workers of our Board of Trustees, Mr. William King, and Mr. Richard C. Winship.

To Grace Protestant Episcopal Dorcas Society, and the First Unitarian Church, who have helped us so materially in our sewing, we desire to extend thanks. To Mr. Charles O. Baird, for his continued support of the Matthew Baird Cornet Band, to the officers of the Pennsylvania Railroad, for their kindness extended to the Northern Home, and to all other contributors we gratefully acknowledge their assistance in the past, and hope for a continuance of their support in the future.

We realize that much of the success of our Institution is due to the harmonious coöperation of those to whom is entrusted the administration of the daily responsibilities.

“Hitherto the Lord hath helped us.” He who has been with us in the past in our endeavor to be the means of fulfilling the Divine promise, implied in these words: “When my father and my mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up,” we have every reason to believe will not disappoint our expectations in the future, and stimulated by the example of those whose course is finished, and by the success of our exertions heretofore, our motto still is “Forward.”
